Exciting New Venture – Junior branch of the Cornish SRP.

Junior Branch News

As of September 2011 we will be starting a Junior branch. The rehearsals will be before the main 'adult' SRP and will cater for any children who have started to play the recorder and want to join in.

The Junior rehearsals will take place from 1.15-1.50pm at which point there will be a break so that SRP members can get unpacked and ready for their session.

Normal (!) SRP will take place from 2-4.30pm with the addition of some of the more able Junior members up until tea break.

We would like a few volunteers to buddy any of the younger ones who want to have a go at playing in the big group—just to sit near them and point out where we are if they get lost!

We hope that giving them the opportunity to play in the bigger group will broaden their musical experiences and secure the future of the Cornish branch of the SRP.

(On the back of this letter is a poster advertising this—please display if you can!)

20th Anniversary Concert!

We are hoping to put on a concert next year in celebration of the Branch being 20 years old.

The concert programme will include pieces from the booklets, Music medal books and the SRP library. There will also be some solo spots and obviously tea and cake!

Venue and date to be confirmed - we hope that you will all want to join in and play!

Festival 2013

As you may be aware the SRP Festival will be held in Cornwall in 2013. If you wish to help out with the planning or organisation of the event on the day please see Sue, Zoe or Sarah. We need as many people to help and support this exciting venture as possible.

Conducting opportunities.

If there is anybody interested in having a go at conducting please see a member of the committee. It would be good to see members taking the lead - if only for 20mins!

You never know you might enjoy it!
